Section 3. Additional Activities: In a profession there is no clear definition of duties nor of time schedule. In the teaching profession there are many responsibilities and acts of service and assistance inherent within the complete concept of teaching and guidance. It shall be the duty of every teacher to assist in the total educational program and its related activities within reasonable requests and capabilities. When the supervision, coaching, or directing of an activity is regular, extensive, and of long duration, it shall be the policy of the Board of Education to compensate.

Section 4. Miscellaneous:

Each teacher shall be given tentative teaching assignments relating to subject matter areas by the end of the school year. Teachers shall be notified of any changes in tentative schedules before the opening of the school year to the extent possible.

Subd. 3. Each teacher in the system shall be provided with a duty-free lunch period of thirty minutes between the hours of eleven and one fifteen.

The School District may add up to four (4) days of professional development contiguous to the school calendar starting with the 2010-2011 school year. Teachers will be paid their individual daily rate (Salary/181,182,183,184) for each additional day up to four (4). Section 3. Emergency Closings: In the event that a student or a teacher duty day is lost for an emergency and the total school days is less than 175, the teacher shall perform duties on other days when school may be legally held, upon consultation with the designated representative.

ARTICLE XIII BMS GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

This grievance procedure shall be applicable whenever the parties cannot reach agreement on a grievance procedure. A grievance is defined as a dispute or disagreement as to the interpretation of application of any term or terms of the Master Contract in effect and required under M.S. Sec. 179A.20.

5510.5140 Step One

When an employee or group of employees represented by an exclusive representative has a grievance, the employee or an agent of the exclusive representative shall attempt to resolve the matter with the employee's immediate supervisor within 21 days after the employee, through the use of reasonable diligence, should have had knowledge of the event or act giving rise to the grievance. The supervisor shall then attempt to resolve the matter and shall respond in writing to the grievant and the agent of the exclusive representative within five days after the grievance is presented.

5510.5150 Step Two

If the supervisor has not been able to resolve the grievance or has not responded in writing within the time period provided in part 5510.5140 (Step One), a written grievance may be served on the next appropriate level of supervision by the exclusive representative. The written grievance shall provide a concise statement outlining the nature of the grievance, the provisions of the Contract or the just cause situation in dispute, and a statement of the relief or remedy requested. The written grievance must be served on the employer's representative within fifteen days after the immediate supervisor's response was due under part 5510.5140 (Step One). The employer's representative shall meet with the agent of the exclusive representative within five days after service of the written grievance and both parties shall attempt to resolve the grievance. The employer's representative shall serve a written response to the grievance on the agent of the exclusive representative within five days of the meeting. The response shall contain a concise statement of the employer's position on the grievance and the remedy or relief the employer is willing to provide, if any.

5510.5160 Step Three

If the grievance is not resolved under part 5510.5150 (Step Two), the exclusive representative may serve the written grievance upon the chief administrative agent of the employer or that person's designated representative within ten days after the written response required by part 5510.5150 (Step Two) was due. An agent of the exclusive representative shall meet with the chief administrative officer or designee within five days of service of the written grievance and they shall attempt to resolve the matter. The chief administrative officer or designee shall serve a written response to the grievance on the agent of the exclusive representative within five days of the meeting.

5510.5170 Arbitration

Subp. 1. Referral to Arbitration. If the response of the chief administrative officer or designee is not received within the period provided in part 5510.5160 (Step Three) or is not satisfactory, the exclusive representative may serve written notice on the employer of its intent to refer the case to arbitration within ten days after the response required by part 5510-5160 (Step Three) is due.

Subp. 2. Selection of Arbitrator. Within ten days of the service of written notice of intent to arbitrate, the employer's chief administrative officer or designee shall consult with the agent of the exclusive representative and endeavor to mutually agree upon an arbitrator to hear and decide the grievance. If the parties do not agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, either party may request a list of impartial arbitrators from the bureau. The parties shall alternately strike names from a list of five names to be provided by the bureau until only one name remains, and the remaining name shall be the designated arbitrator. The determination of which party will commence the striking process shall be made by mutual agreement or a flip of a coin. If one party refuses to strike names from the list provided by the bureau, the other party may serve written notice of this fact upon the bureau, with a copy to the offending party. Unless it is confirmed that the parties have otherwise selected or agreed upon an arbitrator within three days of service of the notice of refusal or failure to strike names, the bureau shall designate one name from the list previously provided to the parties and the person so designated by the bureau shall have full power to act as the arbitrator of the grievance.

Subp. 3. Arbitrator's Authority. The arbitrator shall have no authority to amend, modify, add to, or subtract from the terms of an existing contract. The decision and award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties.

Subp. 4. Arbitration expenses. The employer and the exclusive representative shall share equally the arbitrator's fees and necessary expenses. Cancellation fees shall be paid by the party requesting the cancellation and any fees incurred as the result of a request for clarification shall be paid by the party requesting the clarification. Each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses except to the extent provided by part 5510.5180, subpart 1.

Subp. 5. Transcripts and briefs. Because arbitration is intended to provide a simple, speedy alternative to litigation processes, the use of transcripts and briefs should be considered only in exceptional circumstances. If a verbatim record is required, it may be prepared providing the party desiring the record pays the cost and makes a copy available to the other party and the arbitrator without charge. The arbitrator may maintain written notes of the hearing and may use an electronic recording device to supplement the note taking. These notes shall be considered the arbitrator's private and personal property and shall not be made available to the parties or another third party. If a recording device is used by the arbitrator to supplement the arbitrator's notes, the arbitrator shall retain the recording for a period of 90 days following the issuance of the award.

5510.5180 Processing of Grievances.

Subp. 1. Release time. To the fullest extent feasible, the processing of grievances under parts 5510.5110 to 5510.5190 shall be conducted during the normal business hours of the employer. Employees designated by the exclusive representative shall be released from work without loss of regular nonovertime earnings as a result of their necessary participation in meetings or hearings held pursuant to parts 5510.5110 to 5510.5190 whenever such release is consistent with the ability of the employer to conduct safe and reasonable operations. No more than three employees shall be entitled to compensation for participation in a single meeting or hearing with respect to any one grievance.

Subp.2. Waiver of steps. The parties may, by written mutual agreement, waive participation in the grievance steps in parts 5510.5140 to 5510.5160 and may similarly agree to extend the time limits established by parts 5510.5140 to 5510.5170.

Subp. 3. Time limits. A failure to raise a grievance within the time limits specified in part 5510.5140, or to initiate action at the next step of the procedure in parts 5510.5140 to 5510.5170 within the time limits in these parts shall result in forfeiture by the exclusive representative of the right to pursue the grievance. A failure of an employer representative to comply with the time periods and procedures in parts 5510.5140 to 5510.5170 shall require mandatory alleviation of the grievance as requested in the last statement by the exclusive representative.
